

The Bulletin's Circulation In Norwich is Double That of Any Other Paper, and Its Total Circulation is the Largest in Connecticut in Proportion to the City's Population.

AD FROM WINDOW OF CONFEDERATE

Mrs. Helen D. Longstreet Volunteers to Raise Money to Keep General Sickles Out of Jail

WILL GET IT FROM THE FOLLOWERS OF LEE

Assures the Harassed General That "The Republic Whose Battles You Fought Will Not Permit Your Degradation"—
Sheriff Appeals to Wealthy Men For Assistance—General's Housekeeper Pays the County Fee.

New York, Jan. 27.—Mrs. Helen D. Longstreet, widow of the famous Confederate general, came to the aid of her husband's Civil war foe, General Daniel E. Sickles, today with an offer to raise $25,000 among the "ragged and maimed followers of Lee" to pay General Sickles' arrears of $200,000. General Sickles, who was arrested yesterday in the civil suit brought by the state to recover the money, indicated a letter to the richest men in New York, appealing to them to aid the aged veteran.

Mrs. Longstreet to General Sickles. In a telegram sent to General Sickles from Gainesville, Ga., Mrs. Longstreet said she had telegraphed to the attorney general of the state of New York that she would raise the money among the Confederate veterans if the attorney general would allow her sufficient time. "The republic whose battles you fought will not permit your degradation," were her closing words to General Sickles.

Sheriff Dealt Gently With Letter. The sheriff addressed his letter to J. P. Morgan, John D. Rockefeller, Andrew Carnegie and the 466 members of the "rich men's club" composed of wealthy New Yorkers. Sheriff Harburger dealt gently with his prisoner. He told that there is no order of arrest immediately this morning, he waited in his office till General Sickles' lawyer, Daniel P. Morgan, had arranged with a surety company for a $300,000 bond for the veteran's freedom. Mr. Morgan brought it to the sheriff's office and he left for General Sickles' Fifth Avenue home during the afternoon.

Serving of the Papers. "Well, general," the sheriff greeted him. "I'm not of formal business today. You know I have to serve you with these papers. I'm sorry I have to do so, but I have no choice."

"It is all right," General Sickles replied, tossing the unopened order and complaint at his library table. "I am one of the best friends I've got, sir."

The sheriff placed the bond before the general and he signed it in a flowing hand. Fee Paid in Pennies. "That handwriting is not so bad for a man who is more than 82 years old," said the sheriff. "It cost me $600 to get this bond. I owe me there was a fee of $525 owing me."

General Sickles' housekeeper, Miss Edith Wilmerding, his housekeeper, to pay it. She came into the room with her hands full of pennies, tripping on a rug and scattered them over the floor. The general assisted in picking them up. When the sheriff left, General Sickles shook hands with him and renewed his declaration of friendship.

The insurance of the bond makes it unnecessary for the sheriff to place General Sickles in the Ludlow street jail, as he feared Saturday he might have to do. The sheriff said this afternoon he thought the case would be speedily brought to trial.

More Window Breaking BY HOTEL STRIKERS. Mass Meeting of 1,500 Waiters Votes to Continue Strike.

New York, Jan. 27.—Following a day of quiet during which hotel managers declared that the waiters' strike had been abandoned, a crowd of 1,500 waiters in mass meeting tonight voted unanimously to continue the strike until their demands had been granted. Hardly had the result of the vote been announced before the strikers left the hall and began a campaign of window breaking at the hotel headquarters more than a hundred waiters and hotel workers joined.

At the Hotel Imperial the strikers halted for a moment and several windows were broken. The police guard charged into the crowd, which stampeded toward union headquarters. The mass meeting at the International Hotel Workers' union headquarters was called by the strikers to call the strike off, but the vote was taken before the action could be taken.

A statement was issued from union headquarters ordering all strikers to return to work tomorrow morning for strike duty as assigned. The order stated that any who failed to report would be under suspicion.

FOSS DISCUSSES REPLY OF HAINES. Says It Was Disposition of Five Governors to Be as Helpful as Possible.

Boston, Jan. 27.—Governor Foss is not discouraged by the lukewarm reply assumed by Governor Haines of Maine toward the "New England railroad conference," agreed upon by the five other governors of these states Saturday.

"We all met with some misgivings," said Mr. Foss, after reading the reply from the Maine governor. "We all had local problems to consider. But, after four hours of deliberation, we felt that the vote which was passed was the disposition of all the governors. It was a helpful reply. We recognized that it was not a case for critical and drastic action so much as it was a case for constructive work."

WIFE ALLOWED HIM TO MARRY ANOTHER WOMAN. Man Charged With Bigamy Tells a Strange Story.

New York, Jan. 27.—Years ago, his wife became homesick for her native Poland, and he, Paul Steinberg, with her consent, married a younger woman and used the $300 dowry brought him to Russia. This was the story Steinberg told today when arraigned for bigamy. Their plan was to return to Poland, but Steinberg decided to return to New York. Here she had trouble supporting her five children and kept coming to her father for money.

After a while Steinberg grew tired of his wife's constant payments. Then his first wife had him arrested. The court thought Steinberg's story so unusual that sentence was postponed to permit further investigation.

BRITISH VISITORS WERE PREPARED FOR GUNMEN. Arrested for Carrying Weapons on Day of Their Arrival.

New York, Jan. 27.—"Our English friends," said the streets of this city were full of British visitors today. Thomas Connor today as he paid a fine for carrying a revolver. Connor and his friend, Thomas Smiley, were arrested when they landed. Both explained that they thought it necessary to carry weapons to protect their property. Each was fined $25.

Rate Cases Still Undecided. Washington, Jan. 27.—Neither the state rate cases nor the interstate rate cases were decided today. The supreme court.

Cabled Paragraphs

Death of Archduke Rainer. Vienna, Austria, Jan. 27.—Archduke Rainer, second cousin of the Emperor Francis Joseph, died today in his 87th year.

Ambassador Guild Gives Luncheon. St. Petersburg, Jan. 27.—Curtis Guild, United States ambassador, today gave a luncheon in honor of the Grand Duke Alexander Michailovich, brother-in-law of the czar.

Steamer Loses Boats and Funnels. St. Michael, Alaska, Jan. 27.—The British steamer Astoria, which sailed from Narvik, Norway, on Dec. 27 for Philadelphia, arrived here today with her funnels and boats gone.

Bermuda Steamer in Collision. Portland, Me., Jan. 27.—The British steamer Miramichi, from Bremen for Bermuda, was benched in Portland harbor today after collision with the British steamer Duns Law, which was on the voyage from Liverpool to Southampton.

Wants an Auto Factory. St. Petersburg, Jan. 27.—Government agents have confidentially sounded American and other interests as to the possibility of establishing a factory in Russia on the basis of guaranteed annual orders for freight and passenger cars, and the taking over of the factory by the Russian government at its valuation in case of war.

To Drop Franchise Bill. London, Jan. 27.—The British cabinet today decided to drop the franchise bill in deference to the speaker's ruling that the form and substance of the bill would be materially altered if the amendment granting the vote to women were adopted that it ought to be presented in the shape of a new bill.

PROF. FISHER RESIGNS CHAIR AT WESLEYAN. Called For by President in Consequence of Recent Speech.

Middletown, Conn., Jan. 27.—Prof. Willard C. Fisher, who has held the chair of history at Wesleyan university for a number of years, announced his resignation today.

Professor Fisher said he did not care to make a statement at this time. He is a Cornell graduate and before coming to Wesleyan was an instructor at Brown university. He is considered an authority on the subject of economic history and has written considerably in recent years he has been much in the public eye because of his interest in politics.

He was chosen mayor on the democratic ticket in 1908. His resignation was marked by the introduction of reform measures. He advocated particularly the abolition of the "blue laws" regarding Sunday observance. However, he closed the stores up tight on Sunday and the action had been made to him, for which action he was subjected to considerable criticism. He is a well known member of the Wesleyan faculty.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

WOOLEN MEN ARGUE FOR THE PRESENT TARIFF. Say Reduction of Duty on Woolen Goods Will Mean Lower Wages.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Protectionists and tariff revisionists had a running battle in the house today. The wool tariff was the subject of the debate. The wool tariff was the subject of the debate. The wool tariff was the subject of the debate.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Electoral Vote of Arizona Lost

PLENIPOTENTIARIES WILL EXAMINE IT TODAY

WASHINGTON

TIME LIMIT EXPIRES NOT YET SUBMITTED

Started For National Capital Ten Days Ago—Arizona Can Be Deprived of Its Vote in the Electoral College.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Lost: The electoral vote of Arizona and its bearing on the peace conference. The office of the vice president of the United States.

Carries Two Votes. Senators and representatives of the baby state of Arizona sent broadcast tonight the foregoing notice when at 6 o'clock the time limit had expired for receiving a message from the national election last November, and Wilfred T. Webb, Arizona's representative in congress, and the taking over of the factory by the Russian government at its valuation in case of war.

To Drop Franchise Bill. London, Jan. 27.—The British cabinet today decided to drop the franchise bill in deference to the speaker's ruling that the form and substance of the bill would be materially altered if the amendment granting the vote to women were adopted that it ought to be presented in the shape of a new bill.

Arizona Keenly Disappointed. Arizona's patriots and legislators were much perplexed and disappointed tonight when they learned that the bill would be caused should the three little votes never be found, they did not want to miss the chance of a new bill.

Left Ten Days Ago. For twenty-four hours before the vice president's office was closed for the night with every electoral vote except Arizona's. The search of Washington hotels and clubs had been conducted in vain for the missing vote. The search of Washington hotels and clubs had been conducted in vain for the missing vote.

Webb was last heard from in St. Louis. For five days ago, his friends could get no word of him from there tonight. Louisville was also sought for information, but none was forthcoming.

Arizona Might Lose Its Vote. Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Ally's Note to Turks Is Brief

PLENIPOTENTIARIES WILL EXAMINE IT TODAY

WASHINGTON

TIME LIMIT EXPIRES NOT YET SUBMITTED

Started For National Capital Ten Days Ago—Arizona Can Be Deprived of Its Vote in the Electoral College.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Lost: The electoral vote of Arizona and its bearing on the peace conference. The office of the vice president of the United States.

Carries Two Votes. Senators and representatives of the baby state of Arizona sent broadcast tonight the foregoing notice when at 6 o'clock the time limit had expired for receiving a message from the national election last November, and Wilfred T. Webb, Arizona's representative in congress, and the taking over of the factory by the Russian government at its valuation in case of war.

To Drop Franchise Bill. London, Jan. 27.—The British cabinet today decided to drop the franchise bill in deference to the speaker's ruling that the form and substance of the bill would be materially altered if the amendment granting the vote to women were adopted that it ought to be presented in the shape of a new bill.

Arizona Keenly Disappointed. Arizona's patriots and legislators were much perplexed and disappointed tonight when they learned that the bill would be caused should the three little votes never be found, they did not want to miss the chance of a new bill.

Left Ten Days Ago. For twenty-four hours before the vice president's office was closed for the night with every electoral vote except Arizona's. The search of Washington hotels and clubs had been conducted in vain for the missing vote. The search of Washington hotels and clubs had been conducted in vain for the missing vote.

Webb was last heard from in St. Louis. For five days ago, his friends could get no word of him from there tonight. Louisville was also sought for information, but none was forthcoming.

Arizona Might Lose Its Vote. Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their way to the state capital. A penalty will be enforced if Webb arrives tomorrow. Meanwhile Arizona's representatives in congress are nervous by awaiting developments.

Under the law the elector chosen to bring to Washington the papers for Arizona should have filed his papers by 6 o'clock tonight at the latest. If he failed to do so, the state would be forced to Arizona would lose its vote in the electoral college and the official vote would be taken on the day of the election. The duplicate set of Arizona's ballots that were sent by mail are on their